

Alyssa L. Thompson

Alyssa L. Thompson is a family law and bankruptcy attorney in the Modesto office of Borton Petrini, LLP. As an undergraduate, Ms. Thompson attended UC San Diego where she received her Bachelor of Arts in political science with a concentration in public law. She went on to attend McGeorge School of Law where she received her Juris Doctorate.

Along with family law and bankruptcy, Alyssa has experience in general civil litigation including insurance defense, personal injury, employment law and public entity defense.

During undergrad, Alyssa interned for State Legislator Joel Anderson in San Diego, CA where she gained insight as to the California legislative process and served the San Diego community. More recently, she has attended legislative visits with California Women for Agriculture to address California laws impacting our local agricultural community.

Alyssa serves our community by volunteering to coach various youth sports teams, including her son's soccer and baseball teams. In addition, she serves on the leadership team for her church and volunteers with its children's ministry.

In her free time, Alyssa enjoys spending time with her husband and two children.

Education:

University of California, San Diego, BA, 2015
University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law, JD, 2019

Admitted:

State Bar of California, 2021

Business & Professional Associations:

California Women for Agriculture

Borton Petrini, LLP | Serving California for Over 120 Years

Since 1899, Borton Petrini has offered high quality legal services throughout the state of California. Our mission is to treat every file as though we were representing ourselves and paying the bill for that representation.

Learn more at www.bortonpetrini.com