LAW OFFICES OF BORTON PETRINI LLP

Attorney Profile

Steven Ferguson

Steven Ferguson is a long-term resident of the Inland Empire who spent his childhood in Redlands, CA. Steven first sparked his interest in the legal field while working as a file clerk in Borton Petrini's San Bernardino office. Steven then took that interest to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in political science. Upon returning to the Inland Empire Steven worked with children with developmental disabilities prior to being admitted to the University of La Verne's College of Law. While attending the University of La Verne Steven received the Kendall Academic Scholarship for the 2018 and 2019 academic years and published an article in the University of La Verne Law Review Journal. In his spare time Steven likes to spend time outdoors hiking and riding motorcycles. He also enjoys spending time relaxing at home with his family.

Education:
University of Nevada, Las Vegas, BA 2014
University of La Verne College of Law, JD 2019

Admitted:
State Bar of California, 2019

Publications:
University of La Verne Law Review Journal, "Legal Solutions in the Face of an Impending Water Crisis: Reevaluating the South West's Approach To Water Management